FRATERNALLY YOURS!

Being a fraternal organization identifies each member as a volunteer, because in the make up of fraternities (and sororities) everyone declares themselves being desirous to be an active member.

It signifies that the Thousand Oaks Elks Lodge #2477 local organization is part of a greater network with common interests and ambitions. Our B.P.O.E. affiliation does not demand we share a particular profession, trade, or participate in a like educational program. It is designed to accommodate all — across political, religious, and social categories to come into communion on behalf of doing good things in our community. The only prerequisites demanded are that each member, upon entering the order promises allegiance to our nation, and they believe in God.

We do not demand that members participate or contribute without cause. We will always suggest, and even cajole qualified members, to contribute their time and expertise towards accomplishing worthy goals that reflect favorably on our being.

In being part of a network of similar Lodges, we as Elks, offer rest for visiting weary Elk travelers, hospitality for other Elks who share in our fraternal organization's commonality, and stand by to provide assistance to Elks whom we can identify as being in need.

We maintain an open membership attitude with no restrictive timelines such as some other fraternities, meaning that as an Elk in Lodge #2477 you can introduce a friend, associate or someone you believe to possess the quality principles that will meld into our society. To date, during our first forty years, we have been blessed with many quality people who bring in their favorable persona for us to enjoy.

We must guard against losing respect for each other by allowing disrespect for others in our Lodge to become an issue. Never is it a credit for our Lodge to condone such behavior. Nor is it appropriate to endorse those who wish to display a "legend in my own mind" image, when suggesting only their answers are correct. Cooperative and meaningful pursuit of excellence on behalf of OUR entire membership is a must!

Let us be intense towards regularly behaving as gentle persons representing a society of outstanding persons in our community. We are genteel ladies, and gentlemen.

THANK YOU SO MUCH! Eddie Rice and BBQ teams
for doing Saturday BBQs and offsite events--you keep our treasury in the black!!!!

I have just returned from the CHEA convention. I must tell you that it was a moving, inspirational, and motivating experience not to mention educational and informative. I won't bore you with the details of bylaws amendments and revisions. Nor will I discuss the details of what I learned of the quarterly audits of our Lodge. All of this information was interesting and informative.

But I will tell you that what I did experience was the enormity of our presence throughout this country simply experienced by the presence of so many people involved in Elkdom. It was overwhelming. It was almost like stepping through the mirror, as did Alice into Wonderland. Not to say that I entered a Wonderland but I entered a whole new experience into the awesome influence that this Order embodies.

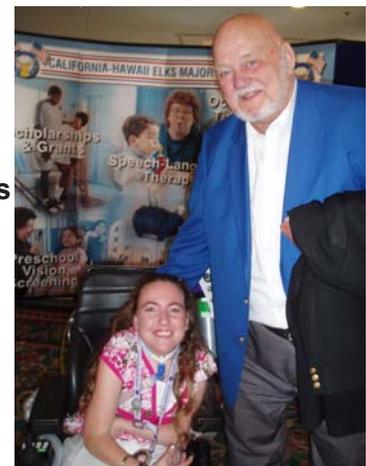

To be present and witness so many people involved in one auditorium for one cause was absolutely incredible. All I can tell you is simply this. Every time you take a dime and nickel a quarter or loose change out of your pocket and place it into the Purple Pig you are a part of that huge experience.

I wish you could have experienced the heartfelt story of our theme child, Alexis. Actually she's not a child. She is a lovely young lady. And California Hawaii Elks Major Project Inc. has been by her side for 17 years. Her story was uplifting, heartfelt and inspirational. This young lady is going on to undergraduate work at Palomar College to study forensics. CHEMPI, has also provided her with a scholarship to assist her in her undergraduate work. This family has endured hardships that you can not imagine. Yet we as Elks through CHEA major projects have given this family relief and hope. In fact, not just hope, but inspiration and motivation for their daughter. If you could've heard her speak to the throng of Elks, you would have been inspired, as was I.

Major Project is a wonderful charity. For our California Hawaii Elks Association to have exceeded our $3 million goal is a testament to the very fiber of every Elk in our Lodge and every Elk throughout this great nation. CHEA is celebrating its sixtieth anniversary this year. I encourage you to visit their web site and learn more at www.chea-elks.org.

Exalted Ruler, Harry Brockwell, with CHEA's theme child Alexis at the CHEA Convention

Have you ever wondered what happened to the 56 men who signed our Declaration of Independence ?

*Five signers were captured by the British as traitors, and tortured before they died.

*Twelve had their homes ransacked and burned, two lost their sons serving in the Revolutionary Army; another had two sons captured.

*Nine of the 56 fought and died from wounds or hardships of the Revolutionary War.

They signed and they pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor.

What kind of men were they?

*Twenty-four were lawyers and jurists, eleven were merchants, nine were farmers and large plantation owners; men of means, well educated, but they signed the Declaration of Independence knowing full well that the penalty would be death if they were captured.

*Carter Braxton of Virginia, a wealthy planter and trader, saw his ships swept from the seas by the British Navy. He sold his home and properties to pay his debts, and died in rags.

*Thomas McKeam was so hounded by the British that he was forced to move his family almost constantly. He served in the Congress without pay, and his family was kept in hiding. His possessions were taken from him, and poverty was his reward.

*Vandals or soldiers looted the properties of Dillery, Hall, Clymer, Walton, Gwinnett, Heyward, Rutledge and Middleton.

*At the battle of Yorktown, Thomas Nelson, Jr., noted that the British General Cornwallis had taken over the Nelson home for his headquarters. He quietly urged General George Washington to open fire on his home. The home was destroyed, and Nelson died bankrupt.

*Francis Lewis had his home and properties destroyed. The enemy jailed his wife, and she died in prison within a few months.

*John Hart was driven from his wife's bedside as she was dying. Their 13 children fled for their lives. His fields and his gristmill were laid to waste. For more than a year he lived in forests and caves, returning home to find his wife dead and his children vanished.

So, take a few minutes while enjoying your 4th of July holiday and silently thank these patriots. It's not much to ask for the price they paid.

Remember: freedom is never free! And the Fourth of July has more to it than beer, picnics and baseball games!!!!

*Lastly, Charles Carroll of Carrollton was the last to die. He did not lose his fortune, but prospered in Maryland. The plantation of Doughoregan Manor is still in the Carroll family today.

We turn around and it's July when temperatures rise, fireworks fill the sky and we reminisce of the journey to freedom some 230+ years ago. The path to freedom was set forth, in part, by these words taken from our Declaration of Independence... "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness..."

The love our forefathers felt for their country gave them courage and strength to set a course of action that would not have been possible if they had not kept those words close to their heart, as a guiding light.

In today's society we might call this document a mission statement, laid out clearly to leave no question in anyone's mind the ultimate goal of a free country. Time and again individuals just like you and I, gave of their property and lives to secure a nation where future generations would enjoy those unalienable Rights. Within our order, we are privileged to have a similar guiding light.

The foundation of our order stemmed from Brotherly Love when one of the original members of the Jolly Corks died shortly before Christmas in 1867, leaving his wife and children destitute. At that time the Jolly Corks decided that in addition to good fellowship, they needed a more enduring organization to serve those in need. They set forth a mission statement that begins: "To inculcate the principles of Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity; to recognize a belief in God; to promote the welfare and enhance the happiness of its Members; to quicken the spirit of American patriotism; to cultivate good fellowship; ...".

It is the result of these four qualities (or values), Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity, that sees us growing as a lodge.

These same qualities within each member entice us to gather together and enjoy each others company. It is Brotherly Love that fills both the meetings and our additional events with harmony and laughter, Charity that drives our efforts for good works, Justice that reminds us to play fairly when dealing with others and Fidelity that keeps us faithful to our word / commitments.

It is our differences in understanding and approach that keeps our lives, and our lodge, interesting and exciting.

If it's been a while since you've visited the lodge – know that no one can fill your spot and you're missed. If you're wondering how you can get more involved? Just ask. If you're asking yourself, "Is there really something that I can do to help out that won't demand days, weeks or months of my time?" – the answer is a resounding "yes". Just come to the meetings, let your voice be counted and see what is possible.

I look forward to seeing you soon.

To each of you – for your commitment to our country and our lodge, I would like to say thank you.

GLMA District Past Exalted Rulers

The West Central Coast District Past Exalted Rulers Association, better known as GLMA, is alive and supporting the West Central District Lodges in many ways. Some to be noted are;

District Ritual Contest – GLMA donated approximately $5,000 to offset Ritual contest expenses this year. That saved each of our lodges $417 for their use in supporting other Elk activities in their Lodge's area

District Hoop Shoot Finals – GLMA covered $1,335 of the District Hoop Shoot costs. Another $112 savings for your lodge.

District Directories – GLMA published and paid $843 for the printing of the District Directory. A $70 savings.

Boy/Girl Scout Recognition Trophies – GLMA paid $390, a $33 savings per lodge.

Convention Hospitality Rooms – GLMA covered $1,040 ($87 per lodge) for the district hospitality rooms. This room provides our members attendees and guests an area to relax and showoff of our District!

This year's State Convention Hospitality room was one of the best ever! It was manned at all times by members of all twelve lodges and was visited by many Elks dignitaries'. Grand Exalted Ruler James Nichelson and his party were in attendance for the Eleven O'clock Toast one evening. So a GREAT BIG THANKS to all members that worked the room, especially to Dennis and Adelaide Wavra who coordinated, set up and made sure the room was at all times able to receive and host members and guests.

And where does GLMA get the funds for supporting the Twelve Lodges in our District? From GLMA members dues and from GLMA's yearly Fund Raising Dinner! This year, 2010, the GLMA fund raiser dinner will be held again in the Santa Ynez Valley at the Solvang Veterans Memorial Building on August 29, 2010 with the Santa Ynez Elks hosting.

Members of your Lodge's PER Association will have dinner tickets available. Remember there are only 200 tickets available. Anyone can come to the dinner. There will be tickets for dinner only available for those who would like to join us for the afternoon in beautiful downtown Solvang.

FIFTH AND FINAL CHILI COOK OFF @ KENNY GROVE

Sorry to say, but none the less very interesting. Beverly was so concerned about the number of cooks that she talked me into cooking. Ya know how long it's been since I cooked competition chili? A long time. Thank goodness for Mark Rediger, I'd jammed my right shoulder on Mothers' Day and needed all the assistance I could get.. Beverly also decided she HAD to cook also. We had six participants:

Cheryl Templeton	Hot Mama's Chili
Mike Flannery	Mike's Firehouse Chili
Debbie LaFarr	M & M Good Chili
Beverly Erickson	Bev's Bodacious Chili
Donna Colleran	Chili Brats
Mark & me	Bite Me Chili

Now the question? Seems when we do play Mexican Train, Beverly keeps score and always wins. No, she didn't win, but she placed third. Donna - second and first Mike Flannery. To my knowledge, Beverly has assisted Joel, but never cooked on her own, is there something suspicious going on here!

Now I need to back track. The Ericksons and vWs went out on Wednesday, why not, it's one of our favorite camp grounds. Joel had mentioned cooking bouillabaisse, which was a fabulous idea and we certainly enjoyed it, huge pot of awesome "fish stew".

A few others arrived on Thursday among whom were Judy and Joe Nemtusak, the Newcomers and Mark Rediger (I think that's all). We decided we'd go to Familia Diaz for dinner. While discussing these plans we asked Joe if he and Judy would like to come along. Joe hemmed and hawed saying that he would "try" to talk Judy into going. What a fraud, turns out Judy LOVES Mexican food

We weren't getting TV reception, so I offered to pay the Newcomers if I could watch that episode of "Survivor". Don assured me that would be necessary, so Bill and I went popping over to their rig - and Doris popped off to sit by the fire with Mark. What a hostess, huh? Found out the Nemtusak's were big fans also. Don't remember who in this camping group that got us hooked on this series, but I would have been extremely unhappy to have missed it.

Sunday was the final episode of Survivor and thank goodness the Nemtusaks were still there so that solved the dilemma.

Friday night drinks and treats were in order and AS usual, who needs dinner later?

Ya know, some people are just not real smart when it comes to their Ps & Qs when the Sheriff is lurking about! Quite a few people were sitting round the fire. The light on the pole was not turned on and Mary had a quilt project she was trying to show to me. You should have heard Ed Colleran squawking along with a few others when I turned the light on - not wise people - I was the Sheriff. Some people are just SO easy to fine. Took all of approximate 3 minutes for me to view Mary's work - then out when the light.

We were sorry that Dave and Mary Hobert had to leave early Saturday morning, having just received word that Dave's mother had passed.

We missed Judy and Chuck Kudra who were off celebrating an anniversary, at Universal City no less. Understand they had a great time - not my cuppa tea but as they say, "Different Strokes".

Saturday after brunch and the meeting, great to have Steve and Alfie out, at least for the meeting. there was a whirlwind of activity in prep for the cook off. I swear I walked back and forth to our rig 20 or more times. Listening to Cheryl while she was playing poker and begging anyone who was kind enough to stir her chili. I swear the woman is amazing at times.

I have no clue how many of Donna Colleran's friends and co-workers she invited out, but two really nice couples came. Randy and Lauren Nation camped with us, apparently really enjoyed the group, and I did the best I could to get Randy to join the Lodge. Not sure if I was successful or not, but here's hoping. The other couple, Carolyn and Sandy (no last name) are tent campers and just delightful. They are seriously considering joining the gang that gets together at Kenney Grove for the New Years gig. Listening to Sandy (hope that's correct) relate how he packs their SUV for camping was nothing short of amazing.

By time evening rolled around and we were using the remaining chili, either on dogs, over rice or whatever, I wasn't sure I really wanted to put another spoonful of chili on anything. But all seemed to "Man Up" and a lot of it was gone.

All in all, it appeared a great time was had by all - hope to see more of you soon!

OUR BEGININGS

For a few months now I've been searching the archives to bring you the history of our Lodge or the Elks themselves. Many stories of our beginning have made their way around the Lodge many times. True the Elks were started by a group of men that called themselves the "Jolly Corks".

But Why? I wanted to know more.

It's November 15 1867 just a few years after the Civil War, Charles Vivian arrives in New York City. Charles is an entertainer and toured the music halls of his native London. He was looking for opportunities in American entertainment. Not knowing what to do, he had no job, or no place to stay. Charles was given a handbill advertising John Ireland's Star Hotel and Chop Shop. He found it and as he entered the doorway. The voices and warmth surrounded him and brought back memories of his favorite pub back in London. He walked up to the mahogany bar and ordered a schooner of ale and began to sip from its foamy edge. Charles soon noticed an argument between the piano player and another ornately vested individual with bushy eyebrows who scowled to the bartender. "I fired the entertainment for tonight. We have a full house. What do we do now". A smile crept onto Vivian's face which didn't escape the big mans notice. Turning to Vivian he asked "What are you finding so funny, little man". It took some fast talking but Vivian debuted that night. His tenor voice and repertoire of new songs wove a spell of enchantment over the crowd that night. Charles Vivian became a huge success starting with a 9 week engagement at Butler's American Theater three days later.

But more important he attracted a large group of theatrical folk and set up regular meetings under the name of the Jolly Corks, an informal society Vivian belonged to in London. How this group evolved into the Elks started two days later after Vivian walked into the Star Chop Shop House. That Sunday, November, 17 Vivian awoke to head down to the Star but found it closed. Vivian then learned of a "Blue Law" that with in the city limits of New York. All saloons and music halls are closed on Sundays. Vivian began planning a solution to this problem.

He started the practice of storing up a bountiful supply of food and beverages before the next Sunday rolled around. He succeeded in getting the message out to a dozen other entertainers from his new circle of friends. They met in the attic of his boarding house on Sunday December 15th. One month after setting foot in America, the first real meeting of the Jolly Corks took place. Each of the talented attendees added a large share of merriment to produce an impromptu variety show. Soon the word was out: The Jolly Corks had the finest and only variety show in town on Sundays. Each Cork was allowed to bring guests, prospective members. Their numbers grew and they moved to a storage loft over Paul Sommers's saloon. Jolly Corks were born. Next month Corks to Elks. Stay tuned.

Attached is a photo taken Saturday (May 8th, 2010) at Freedom Park, Camarillo of the Brownilympics. There were 350 Brownies competing at various events and a like number of parents cheering them on. Thousand Oaks Lodge 2477 has supported our Newbury Park brownie Girl Scouts "Olympics" with cash donations for the past two years. The Brownie Troop shown is led by Sami Siros, a Gold Award recipient who was one of five GSA Gold scouts honored the night before at the T.O. Lodge annual Youth Appreciation dinner. Samantha also gave the keynote "pep talk" earlier on Saturday morning at the start of the Brownilympics. Her girls all said they want to earn Gold just like Sami.

As we have done in the past several years, Lodge 2477 again furnished BBQed hot dogs for the Thousand Oaks Brownilympics held at the California Lutheran University football field on Saturday, May 22nd. This fun-filled event was also well attended by Girl Scouts and their parents.

July 4th, the day we celebrate our independence from the Kingdom of Great Britain could just as easily been July 2nd. Why you may ask? The legal separation of the American colonies from Great Britain happened on July 2, 1776 with a vote and approval of a resolution of independence. Then the Second Continental Congress got to work on the Declaration of Independence, which was debated, revised and approved on JULY 4th. So when you are watching the fireworks or having that family picnic or BarBQ, thank our founding fathers for our most important holiday.

We had a new event for us the other day. We helped the barbecue team cater a wedding. They cooked and we served the meal. I would like to thank Myrna Block, June Leadam, Carroll Stewart, Carol Fredericks and Alice Kennedy for their help in making it a success.

More thanks are in order for all those who helped with Father's Day Brunch. Your hard work is appreciated more than you know.

Pam Smith won $23 at our raffle drawing but unfortunately the bubble drawing was Cherri Peterson. Next month the bubble drawing will be up to $80.

God Bless.

THE POWER AND STRENGTH OF PRAYER

We have much to be grateful for
Yet sometimes, God, we may forget
When worldwide tragedies occur
And aid to victims must be met.

The help will be provided
For comfort, Lord, you will be there
And something else we all can do
Is use your power and strength in prayer.

Amen

Car Show Aug. 21

If you would like to serve on the committee with me in judging, lining up the cars on Saturday morning please give me a call at the lodge 496 2477 or home 375 1089. This will be a good opportunity for our other committees to have booths set up for Drug Awareness, Scholarship, American Essay Contest, PR and Hoop Shoot and Soccer Shoot. We have a basketball rim over by the storage containers, if some one could drag it out for me. I have a new net for it. We would just need to figure out how to secure it to not tip over it. I think it fills with water. Last time Terry Baker put a bag of cement on it. 90 lbs. took care of it. But we have some time. Thanks David Naccarato
